

Fundamentals Training

Learn how to manage your compressed air systems base load, supply, demands, control, maintaining efficiency.
Continuing education credit available

DATE November 29th, 2018
PRICE $275 per person
PRICE $300 with CEU

Continental Breakfast, Lunch, and Training Materials provided.

TRAINING • EDUCATION • EFFICIENCY
COMPRESSED AIR
CHALLENGE

Thursday, November 29th

Grand Rapids, MI

COMPRESSED AIR

FUNDAMENTALS TRAINING

Higher productivity, reduced downtime, energy savings and greater efficiency are the key factors which determine your company's profitability.

You can make your company more profitable by simply getting smarter about compressed air with the Compressed Air Challenge®.

SIGA cas is proud to bring the Fundamentals of Compressed Air Systems training to Grand Rapids.

Register Online Today

Or contact us for more info:

Megan.Orange@SIGAcas; 616-828-1024

Who Should Attend?

- Facility Managers
- Maintenance Managers
- Maintenance Staff
- Energy Engineers
- Others who work directly with your compressed air system

What Will You Learn?

- Calculate and reduce costs of compressed air
- Gain better control of your air system
- Optimize reliability and productivity
- Work with experts with your facility data emphasizing bottom-line results for YOUR FACILITY

Where?

Drury Inn

5175 28th Street

Grand Rapids MI 49512

8 AM - 4PM

Continental Breakfast, Lunch and Materials Included.

Hosted by:

The logo for SIGA cas, featuring the lowercase letters 'cas' in a bold, orange, sans-serif font on a black rectangular background.